

FAMILIES FOR FREEDOM

The fight for immigration reform needs you!

Are you or your loved one getting deported?

Do you need help to locate a family member or report abuse in detention?

Does your church, mosque, or community group need to learn about deportation?

Do you want to fight to keep our families together?

COME TO A COMMUNITY FORUM ON IMMIGRATION

WHEN: Sunday, February 21, 2010, 3pm-5pm

WHERE: Community Room at the NY Congregational Home
123 Linden Boulevard, Brooklyn, NY 11226

WHO: Families facing deportation, community and religious leaders, and your local and national elected officials

In a safe and confidential environment, you will get (1) tips on fighting deportation (2) free 1-on-1 legal consultation and
(3) information on how to be a part of the movement that will reform immigration laws!

Sponsored by Families for Freedom and Churches United to Save and Heal:

FAMILIES FOR FREEDOM is a New York-based multi-ethnic defense network by and for immigrants facing and fighting deportation. FFF is organizing center against deportation. We are source of support, education, and advocacy for families and communities directly affected by detention & deportation.
Tel: 646-290-5551/ <http://familiesforfreedom.org/>

CHURCHES UNITED TO SAVE & HEAL (CUSH) It is the missions of Churches United to Save and Heal to provide services and organizational leadership through education and advocacy to member churches, in an effort to impact the moral, social and economic fabric of our community.
Tel: 718-469-8900/ <http://cushnewyork.org/>