The ICIRR Family Support Network and Detention Watch Network invite you to attend

DEPORTATION 101: STANDING FOR FAMILIES

January 15-16th, 2011
Saturday (10am-5pm) and Sunday (1-5pm)
Location TBD

TRAINING WILL BE IN ENGLISH; SPANISH TRANSLATION

1100 families are wrecked by deportation every day. While we continue our fight for federal immigration reform, more must be done to protect, defend, serve, and lift up the voices of these families.

Deportation 101: Standing for Families is a 2-day conference in January for families in deportation, religious leaders, and advocates of all backgrounds. The conference will provide in-depth, expert education about the deportation process, Secure Communities, and what can be done to protect families. Just as important, this will be an opportunity to gather a wide range of advocates from across the state to unite and plan a comprehensive strategy for how we can best protect families in deportation.

Meals and extensive materials will be provided.

$50 for Non-ICIRR Members
$25 for ICIRR Members and Conference Co-Sponsors

CALL FOR CO-SPONSORS

If your organization would like to co-sponsor the event, please let us know. We are looking for diverse participation across the fields of law, community organizing, faith, social services, education. Co-sponsors commit to send at least 5 participants to the training and must also participate in a 90-minute conference planning session in December. Co-sponsors will be listed on future fliers, our website, and will be invited to continue working on this issue after the conference.

To become a Co-Sponsor, or for more information, please contact Sal Cervantes (scervantes@icirr.org, 312.593.6411) or Veronica Castro (vcastro@icirr.org, 773.391.2768).
